What business customers are saying about Spreadshop

“ We are delighted to have Spreadshop on board for this year’s global campaign CREATE YOUR REVOLUTION - INITIATIVE FOR THE FUTURE OF CULTURE.

Spreadshop is a responsible company and leading merchandising partner. Spreadshop doesn’t only support people in spreading their message, but also sets the highest standards to ensure sustainability, efficiency and diversity. Exactly the topics that move us.

Jürgen Boos
Director of the Frankfurt Book Fair

“ A Spreadshop seemed to be the best choice to us as it was intuitive to set up, easy to operate and has quality products. We didn’t want to make any money with the Shop but managed to increase profit with the improved interest in our project. We opened our Spreadshop less than a year ago, and already people all over the world are sharing the stories of women in mathematics and honoring them with events.

Chrissy Newell
#Mathgals

“ We wanted to empower people who make a difference in their communities day in and day out. So we started our own merch shop. The Spreadshop platform is very intuitive and we can simply embed the shop on our website. Our brand remains consistent across all channels.
